

WATERSIDE

Welcome

Our Summer season is always an exciting time here at Waterside.

Following last summer's knock out success, Refract:18 returns this July with a phenomenal ten day programme of events to wow and surprise us. With queer cabaret, site-specific theatre and an improvised musical, we can guarantee an unforgettable experience for all ages. Go to refract.org.uk for the full programme. We are delighted to have John Bramwell from legendary I am Kloot performing here this summer, plus West-End superstar Kelly Ellis will be entertaining us in May.

Don't miss well-known author and presenter, Stuart Maconie on retracing the famous Jarrow Crusade, and in June, Dan Snow will be talking historical facts about Sale and other fascinating anecdotes.

Matt Forde joins us for some terrific stand-up and watch out for comedy sketch MARVELus on all the MARVEL movies!

As always, there is a bumper programme on offer for families, including children's favourite Michael Rosen's Chocolate Cake and the fabulous Our Kids Social bring us Make, Do & Bop for some super summertime fun!

Thank you for your support. We look forward to welcoming you back soon.

Lakin McCarthy Entertainment Ltd presents

Stuart Maconie: Jarrow; Road to the Deep South

Wed 23 May | 19:30

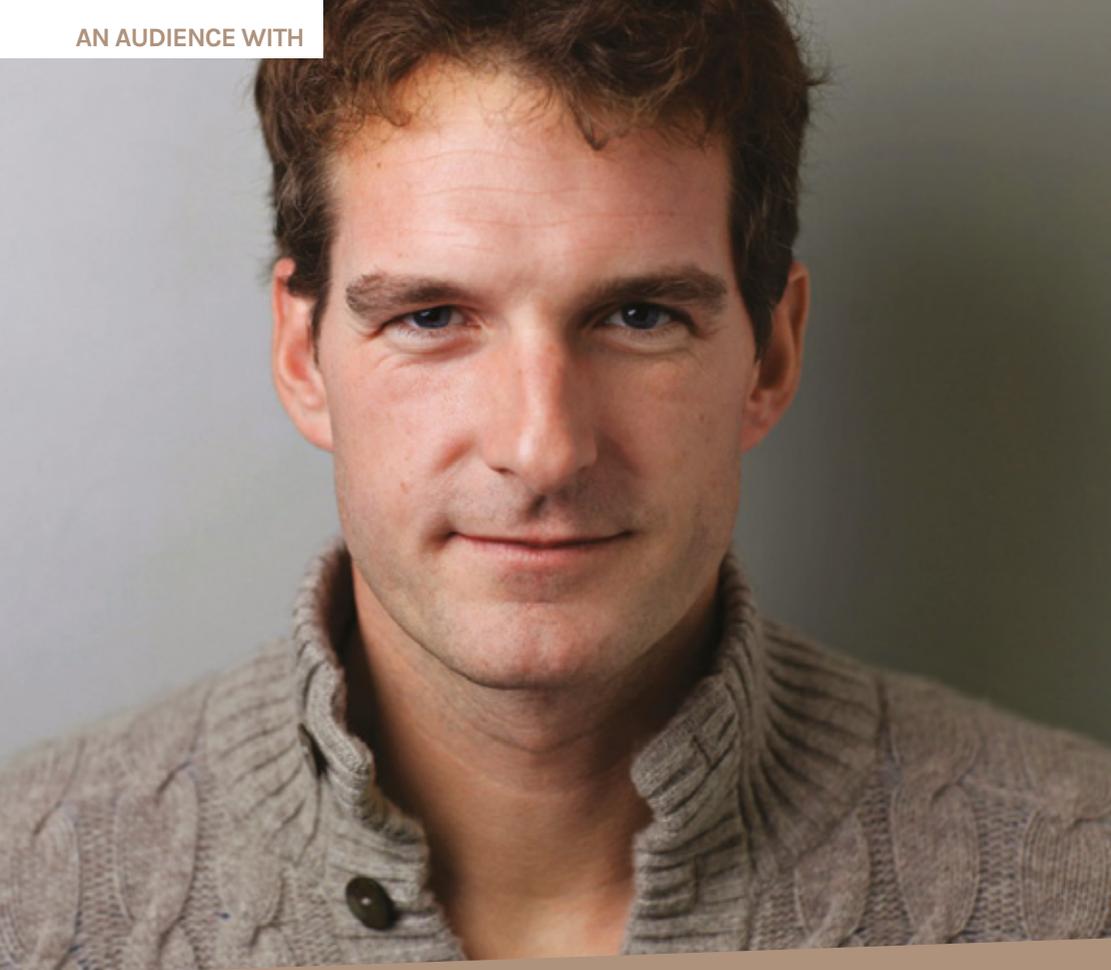

In October 2016, writer and broadcaster Stuart Maconie walked 300 miles from Jarrow to London retracing the famous Jarrow Crusade 80 years on, through a divided, complex country that echoes 1936 in many ways. From choral evensong to curry house, from austerity to affluence, from Wearside to Westminster, join him on an entertaining, impassioned, enlightening journey through Britain then and now.

Stuart is a bestselling author of travel, culture and social history books as well as one of Britain's best known radio presenters across many BBC networks.

Publick Transport presents

We are Brontë

Sat 26 May | 19:30

Morecambe and Wise meets David Lynch in this madcap reimagining of the Brontë myth, presented in Publick Transport's playful and irreverent style. Taking the real and fictitious worlds of Yorkshire's literary siblings as their inspiration, two performers combine rigorous physical theatre with anarchic comedy to deconstruct not only gothic themes of love, madness and revenge, but also themselves. Expect wind, spooky houses and really bad coughs.

'a mini comedic masterpiece...ambitious, risk-taking, edgy, just downright different.'

Pride & Prejudice

Sun 24 Jun | 18:00

Hoorah! Heartbreak Productions is pleased to announce that the Prince Regent is coming to visit. You are hereby required to attend an etiquette lesson hosted by The Association of Higher Etiquette and Manners (A.H.E.M.), who will educate you in the politesse of high society.

Join Heartbreak, the Bennet sisters, and a host of charming, young bachelors for an evening of comedy, romance, and more than one come-uppance, as we learn how to behave, ahem, properly.

Cucumber sandwiches are permitted at this outdoor adaptation of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, but do ensure you know how to properly use a napkin, remember to chew with your mouths closed, and please, try not to fall in love with Mr Darcy, as we believe he is very soon to be engaged.

(You may also want to bring a blanket or chair to sit on).
