Welcome to our Spring/Summer season here at Waterside, it is a real pleasure to share a programme that reflects both where we have come from and where we are heading.

One of our proudest moments has been the opening of a new permanent home for the Cosgrove Hall Films Archive, just next door in Sale Library. Caring for this extraordinary collection has been a privilege and creating a space where audiences can connect with the legacy of Cosgrove Hall's world famous work feels like a truly significant moment for Waterside and for Trafford.

Looking ahead, 2026 also brings an exciting creative first with the launch of our very first in house production, Clothes Swap. This step marks an important moment in our journey, moving beyond presenting great work to making it too, which reflects our commitment to showcasing bold ideas, nurturing talent and making meaningful connection with our community.

As always, Waterside is a place to discover, to be inspired and to feel at home. On behalf of the whole team, we look forward to welcoming you and thank you for your continued support.

Clothes Swap

Presented by Waterside Arts

Written by emerging playwright Liam Mansfield and inspired by his work as an LGBTQ+ youth worker, this powerful new play is set inside a youth club, a space of refuge, resistance and radical self-expression.

The story follows a group of queer young people navigating identity, belonging and the beautiful chaos of becoming themselves. At its heart is their fiercely protective but emotionally drained youth leader, alongside an outsider whose suspicion threatens the fragile safety of the group.

Honest, funny and deeply compassionate, the play explores what it means to be seen, supported and held by community. It celebrates the vital importance of spaces where queer young people can exist without explanation, while confronting the tensions that arise when those spaces are misunderstood or challenged.

This is a story about care, conflict and the power of showing up for one another.

Clothes Swap is the first in-house production by Waterside Arts and was originally developed by Green Carnation Theatre.
